

PILGRIMAGE TO QUITO 2026

Sanctuary of Our Lady of Buen Suceso, of the Purification or Candlemas

From January 23 to February 3, 2026

1. TESTIMONIALS

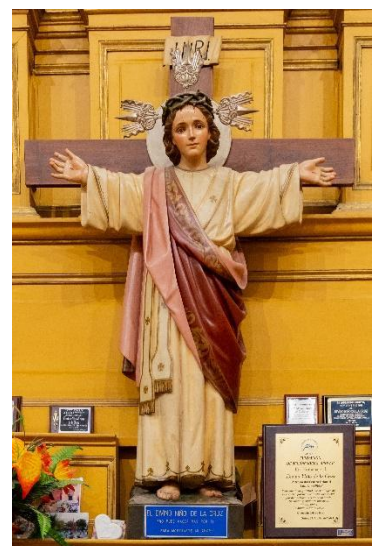

“Thank you very much, Santiago, for the unforgettable experience of being able to meet Our Lady of Buen Suceso. It is incredible what Quito has for the Christian Faith, especially in these difficult times. The figure of the martyr Gabriel García Moreno is moving and strengthens faith; walking through the places of his life and martyrdom in prayer is very comforting. Thanks be to God, we had the opportunity to pray before the Virgin of Buen Suceso during the days she was exposed for veneration: I recommend that when you visit, you pray the rosary and devotions before Her or before the Holy Child Jesus Crucified, also venerated by the Conceptionist Sisters. And there is so much more! Saint Mariana de Jesús Paredes y Flores, the Lily of Quito. And in June especially the Sacred Heart of Jesus, since Ecuador was the first country to officially consecrate itself to the Sacred Heart. Truly thank you for this pilgrimage. We must return.”

— José Alfonso Ramos González, Chihuahua, Mexico

“Thanks be to God, everything was wonderful. Yes, it was a very blessed pilgrimage. We have memories that will remain forever in our hearts, especially because they cannot be expressed in words. God bless you abundantly in your apostolate, and may Our Lady give you the graces you need.”

— Mónica Sacasa, Florida, USA

“Hello, Santiago. I want to take this moment to thank you for accompanying us during these days of pilgrimage in your beautiful and blessed country of Ecuador—especially in the city of Quito. There are no words to express what we lived in these days in this blessed city, where so many supernatural events and manifestations from Heaven have occurred. Where Our Mother of Buen Suceso wanted to keep her gaze upon that blessed Monastery [of the Immaculate Conception]. Visiting these holy places was an extraordinary religious experience that filled both my friend and me with so much peace and joy that I only wish to return as soon as possible. I invite all your followers to take the opportunity to visit Quito—you will not regret it. May Our Lady of Buen Suceso, Mother Mariana de Jesús Torres, and all the Holy Martyrs of Ecuador bless you.”

— Ana Rodríguez, Pennsylvania, USA

“I had a magnificent experience in Quito, because Our Mother of Buen Suceso gave me a gift greater than I expected. My only intention was to visit the church where Our Lady is located. I had heard about Our Lady of Buen Suceso here in the United States. I used my vacation to pass through Quito and visit its beautiful churches. I arrived on a Thursday and was told that the Church of the Immaculate Conception Monastery opened every day for Mass at seven in the morning. I went to Sunday Mass and that is when I met Santiago. He was speaking with people, asking them questions about the Virgin of Buen Suceso. It is incredible to realize that many people walk past that place and do not know how valuable its history is! Santiago also explained: “There are people in other countries who know the story of Our Lady of Buen Suceso, but sadly, many in Ecuador do not.” Santiago advised me to delay my trip to Cuenca by one day so I could go to the monastery’s shop, where the sisters sell their crafts and devotional items of the Virgin of Buen Suceso and Mother Mariana de Jesús Torres. I also had the opportunity to see the incorrupt body of Mother Mariana. Our Mother not only allowed me to know where the monastery is, but also gave me the opportunity to attend Holy Mass there and see Mother Mariana herself! Thank you, Santiago, for sharing with me and the other pilgrims your knowledge of Quito's rich cultural and religious heritage. God bless you in your projects."

— Pedro Campoverde, Peekskill, New York, USA

"I think you did a fantastic job. There was so much Divine Providence on that trip—it was truly amazing. Everyone had different expectations and found themselves in different places spiritually, emotionally, mentally, and physically. What you did with our trip, especially taking it on at the last minute, was really incredible. You were very patient with all the difficulties that came up. You made it a truly spiritual journey, far beyond what was originally planned. There will never be a "perfect" pilgrimage because the point is to grow in holiness. We all learned so much and I would not change it for anything. And we are very fortunate now to have a wonderful new friend. I will be praying for you and I hope many others will have the opportunity to experience Quito under your guidance."

— Laura Hurtubise, Peoria, Arizona, USA
